Basic Information

There are two main railway stations in Wollongong, namely North Wollongong station and Wollongong station. They are on the same railway line, south coast line. Free buses stop at both stations.

There is an APP called "TripView", where you could find public transport timetables of Sydney region. All the transport information given in this file could also be found on this APP. You can install this APP on your mobile phone if available to keep the transport information up to date.

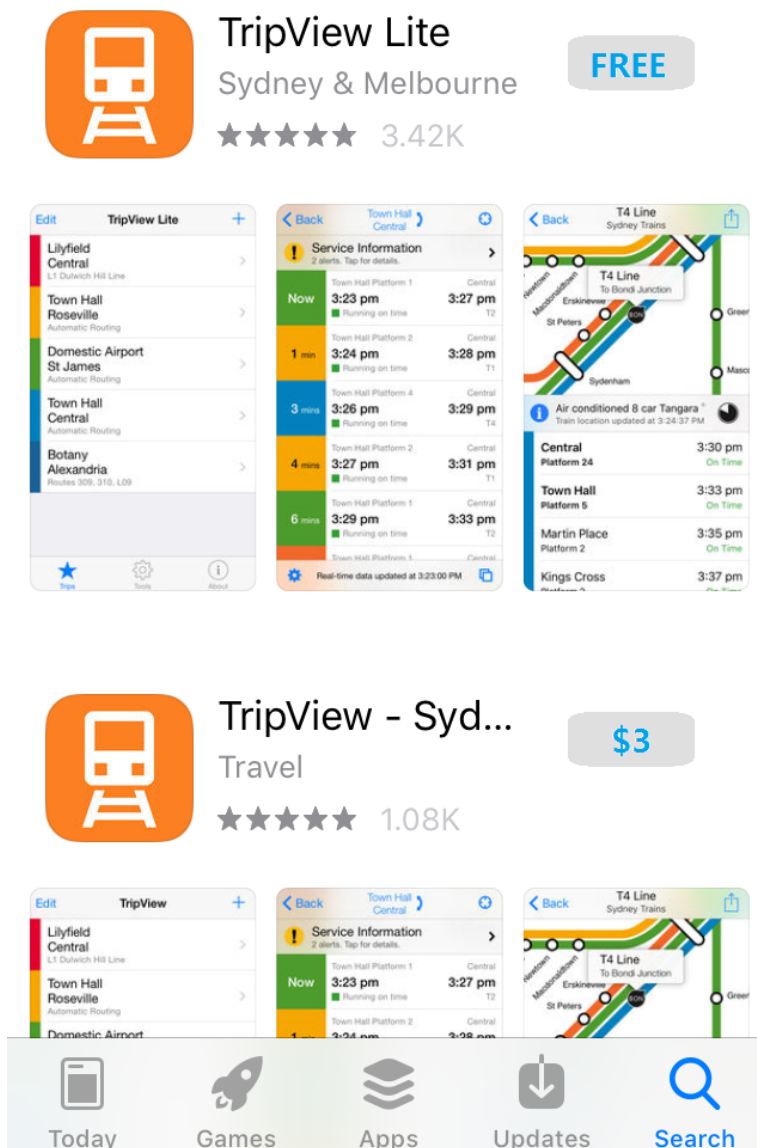

Icon of TripView

The APP "TripView Lite" is free, it cannot store the traffic information you have searched. So every time you use this APP you need to identify which station you start from, which station you want to go and keep connected to the internet. The APP "TripView" is not free, but it can store the information you have searched. The price is around 3 US dollars (18 Chinese Yuan as shown in the figure).

Transport from Sydney to Wollongong

To transport from the Sydney airport to Wollongong, you need to take two railway lines and one transfer. First, take T8 Airport & South Line from the "Domestic Airport" station (platform 2) or "International Airport" station (platform 2) to "Wolli Creek" station. Then, transfer to South Coast Line (at platform 4) to Wollongong. All the stations in Wollongong are in this railway line and you can choose which station to get off according to the location of your hotel. The timetable of T8 Airport & South Line is as follows.

Wollongong Free Bus Information

There are three FREE bus routes in Wollongong, namely 55A/55C, 9/9N, and GKA/GKC. There are also several other bus routes in the city, but, they are NOT free and you need an opal card to take these buses. The information of the three free bus routes is as follows.

Bus route 55

The bus 55 is the route around the city. 55A goes anticlockwise and 55C goes clockwise. The detailed information could be found in the figure below.

Roadmap and Timetable of 55A/55C

Bus 9/9N

The bus 9/9N is the route between North Wollongong railway station and the campus of UOW. Bus 9N goes directly between North Wollongong railway station and the campus, while bus 9 takes a trip around the campus and then returns to North Wollongong railway station. The roadmap of 9/9N is given below.

Roadmap of UOW shuttles

Note that it is during winter holiday when the conference takes place, therefore, the bus 9/9N will run as the reduced service timetable. The timetable is as follows.
